

Welcome to Pamela & Dean's

FAMILY DESCRIPTION

A close-knit Christian family of four, whose passions are ballet, science, science-fiction and fantasy. We spend evenings watching television as a family, with the storyline serving as the starting point to discuss ideas and plot points. We play tabletop role-playing games biweekly, and guests may watch or take part. We are musical and host musical evenings and play music at church worship. Guests are welcome to accompany us to church if they wish. Home-made bread and home-made breakfast biscuits are the norm on our table, along with international cuisine.

THE SPOTTER'S OPINION

This family is really welcoming! Pamela and Dean have already thought about all the activities and visits the Tripster and them can do together!
